

On a beautiful spring day, North Shore Coaching College (NSCC) celebrated the 2018 Annual Awards Presentation to acknowledge exceptional performance of our students in the academic year 2018 at the Box Hill Golf Club. Students, parents and guests were treated to panoramic views of the magnificent course.

The awards presentation was attended by over 260 guests from our learning community including: Mrs Demi Mak, National Chairman & Founder NSCC; Mr Andy Mak, National Principal NSCC; Mr Anson Mak, National Managing Director NSCC; Ms Christina Chia, General Manager & Principal – Victoria; Mayor of Whitehorse, Cr Bill Bennett & wife, Carolyn; keynote speaker, Ms Danielle Storey, CEO Eastern Innovation Business Centre; Mr Jim Goodin, Mental Health Foundation Australia; City of Whitehorse Cr Andrew Davenport; City of Whitehorse Cr Tina Liu; President Elect Rotary Club of Manningham, Cathie Wareham & husband, Nick Wareham; teachers; staff; Campus Directors; parents; and, student winners.

North Shore Coaching College has been serving the community for over 27 years delivering high quality, affordable tuition for students from Prep to High school. General Manager & Principal, Christina Chia stated that “The College’s strong legacy of ‘proven success’ has seen us successfully coached and assisted thousands of students for the past 27 years in over 65 Campuses across Australia and New Zealand. Our success rate is high in both tangible results and overall experience. We pride ourselves as being beacon of equity, diversity, inclusion and access.” Mayor Bill Bennett’s speech reinforces North Shore’s excellence as we were finalist to Whitehorse Business Excellence Awards.

At North Shore, we help students build mental resilience by positive learning experiences during class, structured course programs to assist with student confidence, building solid foundations for good learning habits, and encouraging joy in learning to become lifelong learners. This was reinforced by scholarship winners, Grace Nguyen and Sophie Nguyen’s impressive presentations sharing their North Shore journey. Their presentations were a highlight of the event.

Our guests were blessed with high calibre presentations by keynote speaker, Danielle Storey with the key message to students to celebrate their successes and to “be YOU” and Jim Goodin reinforcing that positive mental health and educational capabilities are related.

The event celebrated students who won scholarships into private schools, Selective High Schools, SEAL and outstanding ICAS participants. Our learning community and parents were extremely happy and proud, as demonstrated by their enthusiasm by taking lots of photos throughout the event. National Managing Director, Anson Mak’s inspirational speech reminded our students to always be grateful to parents for their unconditional love and support in their success.

North Shore Coaching College has 19 campuses in Victoria and is committed to advance students’ knowledge, confidence and success through “Tuition That Works!” and assist them to be the best versions of themselves.
